Miss Abbie A. Lewis the compiler of this book - died May 13 - 1932 Born - June 28 - 1834

Louis Russell. 1930. 154

Louis Russell was born in France, May 29. 1700. d June 29. 1793, in Marblehead, M. Dec. 26. 17²⁷37. Mary Savage, b. July 26. 1704. d May 17. 1775 66. 70. 7. 15. edgs. M. in Episcopal Church.

As stated by his grandson William Andrews Richardson, in a paper left by him, in order that the future generations might know the origin of the family, Louis came to America in 1717. Extract from paper says "The family were Protestants and surrounded by Catholics. When a school boy of 17, Louis, uttered some words against the Pope. His family and friends became alarmed and sought some way to get him out of the coun.

ry. as quickly as possible. First, thought of sending him to relatives in England, but concluded he would not be safe there, and a ship being ready to start for America, they put him on board, and he came to Boston, but finally went to Marblehead where there were many French people. He married and died there. He never returned to France though he once thought of doing so when 50 or more, but his wife objected.

Extract from Salem Gazette. "June 28. 1793. Died in Marblehead. Louis Russell. in 93.rd year of his age. He was one of the Huguenots, who in the beginning of the present century fled from France for their attachment to the Protestant religion, and he has ever supported a worthy and unblemished reputation."

(This the correct account.)

Tradition of Louis Russell, from a paper in possession of Mrs. Batch Newburgh.
"The family were of high rank and in a time of trouble with Catholics, they being Protestants, started to leave France.

The Capt of the ship was to wait for all who had engaged passage, to come on board. The father of Louis Russell, left the ship to secure some property, not returning promptly, the wife, against the protests of all on board, went ashore to find her husband, leaving baby Louis, there alone in charge of a nurse. The Capt sailed without waiting for them, and they were never heard from. The baby Louis was left on the ship with nurse, who died before reaching port. He was cared for by passengers, and on his arrival at (Boston) sent to some people in Marblehead. His clothing was rich and marked with a cross.

When some time after an effort was made to identify him by the marks, the clothing had been spirited away?

Aug 31. 1824 When ^{Wm. H. H.} Lays was here in the he called for a meeting of the heirs of Louis Vincent, told his name and offered to get the property belonging to them ^{Paris} if the heirs would find anything to prove they were his heirs.

Louis was theoretically & practically a temperance man & retained his faculties to the last. Died in 93rd year. beloved by all. Incapable of doing a wrong act.

He lived in what is now Crocker Park. N.H. and is probably buried under the Episcopal church where he was married, as was a custom at that time.

 1760. A sister about 16. came with him; but died soon after their arrival.
 His will proved. in Salem. Aug 5. 1805.
 Is said to have been at ^{School} the St. Plessis in Paris with Lafayette. His family bible was in possession of Mrs. Blany. and burned, but the family record was saved. He owned several ships and was wealthy.

He refused to say anything about his family except that "they all died suddenly one day". He had no relatives in this country. There were others of the name in Marblehead no way related.
 * A lady riding in M-h-d. sometime ago met an old gent. and asked if he knew the family, "Yes indeed was the reply.
 the daughters were all very handsome, and every one fit for a duchess, You look just like them. It was a pretty sight to see the 8. daughters coming out of church all dressed in white, and the sons with cocked hats under their arms for fear of disturbing their powdered wigs, waiting for them at the steps.
 * The lady referred to above, was a descendant of Capt. Lewis.

 library with her one day, she read to me several Persian poems from the original. She was very charming in her manner. She endured many trials and disappointments in her work but was always cheerful, looking on the bright side. She did much for the poor women of India

Rev. Robert Hoskins was born in Bennington, Vt. Was a missionary of the Methodist Church in India. 36 years. Graduated from Williams College in 1866, and after a year in Union Theological Seminary N.Y. City. Started for India 1867.

In 1896, received the degree P.H.D. from Boston University. He was one of the most successful missionaries of his denomination

Previous being a preacher & teacher, he was well versed in medicine, having taken a course in the University School of Medicine. An important part of his work, was the manual training school he started in Beawnpore, after his return to India the last time. He taught hundreds of young men to be self supporting by the use of carpenter's tools. The furniture made by his students was in constant demand by Englishmen, who took the products back to England, to show what the British subjects in India could do.

He was well known in New England, having preached in many of its pulpits on missionary topics.

He supplied the pulpit of the Lafayette st church in Salem, Mass. during the absence of the pastor Rev. Dillon Bronson.

Obituary. Died - at New Orleans.
Oct. 28. 1820. Capt. Edmund Lewis Jr. aged 48. of Marblehead. Mass. leaving a disconsolate widow and nine children to lament the loss of an affectionate husband and a kind and tender father. Capt Lewis was universally esteemed and beloved by all who knew him in his domestic or in Foreign Climes; having a heart susceptible to the feelings and distresses of others. He bore with patience and resignation the allotments of Providence in causing him to pass through a scene of disappointments and deprivations in this vale, and we humbly hope through the grace of God is now enjoying the rest which remaineth for the just."

"Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

He was captured on board of his own ship the Yonahawk, after peace was declared, and taken with eight others to Halifax where they were confined in prison. They escaped through a drain, took refuge under a dory, while the English fired over them not knowing they were near. A pet dog was confined in the prison with them; which they were obliged to kill lest he should betray them by barking. Capt Lewis said "he never did anything that went against his heart as that did."

From his daughter Mrs. Charlotte Simpson.

Charlotte Caroline of Mary Lewis & John Russell. b July. 16. 1815. in Marblehead and lived there 12 years. Her father was cashier of M-h-d Bank and resided in the Lee Mansion.

She remembered distinctly Lafayette's visit to M-h-d. and his entertainment in the house.
his great interest in the family, because Mrs Russell was a gr dau of his old friend Louis Russell. Charlotte C. Russell. began to teach when 15 years old, and followed her prof untill she was 75. She began to teach in the family of Johnathon Phillips of Swampscott, remaining there till the three daughters were young women. Then she went to an English family in Montreal, and with them to Jamaica. where she lived about 6 years. This laid the foundation of her Spanish studies of which she was so fond.

On her return from Jamaica she became Governess in the family of Gen Dupont of 580 Wilmington Del. and lived there till she gave up her work at the age of 75. That she held the affection and esteem of her employers and pupils was shown in their constant and thoughtful attention to her in her old age.

Her tastes were literary and she read with ease Spanish, French and German, keeping up her interest in them untill the close of life.

She used to tell the following story in connection with the visit of Lafayette to her home in 1824. Coming in to the house one day, the mother told the the children, they must be very quiet as a great Gen, who had come a long distance over the ocean, was there and wished to rest awhile.
Being told he was in the mother's chamber, they made a rush up stairs and burst into the room, anxious to see what such a great man could look like. The Gen wished some water to drink and the children were told to get it.

The son of the Gen. went to pump for it.

Mrs. Abigail Benson Johnson, cooked the pig for the dinner given the Gen. in the Lee Mansin and also helped decorate for the dinner given him in Boston. She was gr dau. of Capt. Edmund & Tabitha Russell Lewis. Mrs. Elizabeth (Lovett) Blaney was present (a little girl then) and as she passed the Gen. he took her in his arms and kissed her.

Striker to Danvers. during the war of 1812. to be away from M. h. d. where English vessels came in and made the old ladies very nervous, and frightened. She remembered the return to M. h. d. & the illumination in honor of peace. She helped put out the candles in the old Lee mansion, where her aunt Polly (Lewis) Russell lived. Her husband was cashier of the bank there. The tavern where her uncle Bill lived of John & Miriam Roads Russell was next the Grand Bank & very near the old homestead where she and her mother was brought up, and where uncle Ned, Edmund Lewis, Jr. lived at one time, & her mother Mrs. Lovett kept a private school. Gasp Louis Russell, must have brought a great deal of property with him as they always plenty. Lafayette Lafayette had ^{wife} sold John of Louis. they could have their property in France if they would come to France for it, but he did not go. When Lafayette came to N. h. d. in 1824. John was dead but he asked to see all of his descendants, Mrs. Polly Russell. had them go to the La Namson and pass in review before him. Molly Striker or Stryker. was 2nd wife of John Russell. She had one daughter who died at 18.
