

VICTORIAN WOMEN OF MARBLEHEAD

Discover trailblazing women who helped end slavery, fought for suffrage, traveled the nation on their bicycles, and made a few movies along the way.

Tour Length: 60 Minutes
Distance: ½ Mile

SLAVERY TO FREEDOM TOUR

Marbleheaders have forged close links to slavery ever since they built the first ship that transported slaves to Massachusetts.

On this tour, you'll see sites of slavery from the 1700s, and sites of abolitionism and the Underground Railroad from the 1800s.

Tour Length: 60 Minutes
Distance: 1 Mile

SPORTS AND LEISURE HISTORY

Discover the beginning of popular sports and leisure from the Civil War to World War II.

Sports and leisure hasn't always been fun and games. Headers have grappled with tough questions:

What sports should women play?

When is leisure immoral, and who decides?

Is Sunday for church, or the best damn day to have fun?

This tour reveals the contested meanings of leisure that we still grapple with today.

Tour Length: 60 Minutes

Distance: ½ Mile

HIDDEN HISTORY OF ABBOT HALL

Abbot Hall is more than just a shrine for the town's art. Presidents, cowboys, vaudeville stars, and jewel thieves have all graced its halls. Discover lesser known stories from Abbot Hall's first century, including...

How The Spirit of '76 nearly got destroyed
What happened when Headers kidnapped a president
How Headers prepared for a bombing in World War II
What's hidden (literally) beneath Abbot Hall

Tour Length: 60 Minutes
Distance: 1/3 Mile